NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A new star blazed forth in the world's series when Leslie Bush pitched the Philadelphia Athletics to victory over the New York Giants in the third game of the championship struggle by a score of 8 to 2. Bush was materially aided in his rush to a pedestal in the baseball hall of fame by the savagery of his teammates, but the major portion of the glory was accorded by both fans and players to the youngster, who startled the diamond veterans with his speed and control in his debut in a world's series.

While his pitching was not as spectacular as that of the veterans, Mathewson and Plank, yet his box work was of the calibre that entitles him to a niche alongside Hugh Bennett, of the Boston Red Sox and "Babe" Adams of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who performed similar feats of twirling valor in past world's series.

Only Two Clean Hits.
So effective was Bush's pitching that the Giants secured but five hits and three of these were of the scratch variety. Only three of the 27 putouts credited to the Athletics were made outside the infield and there were innings on a stretch when the Giants never drove the ball out of the diamond.

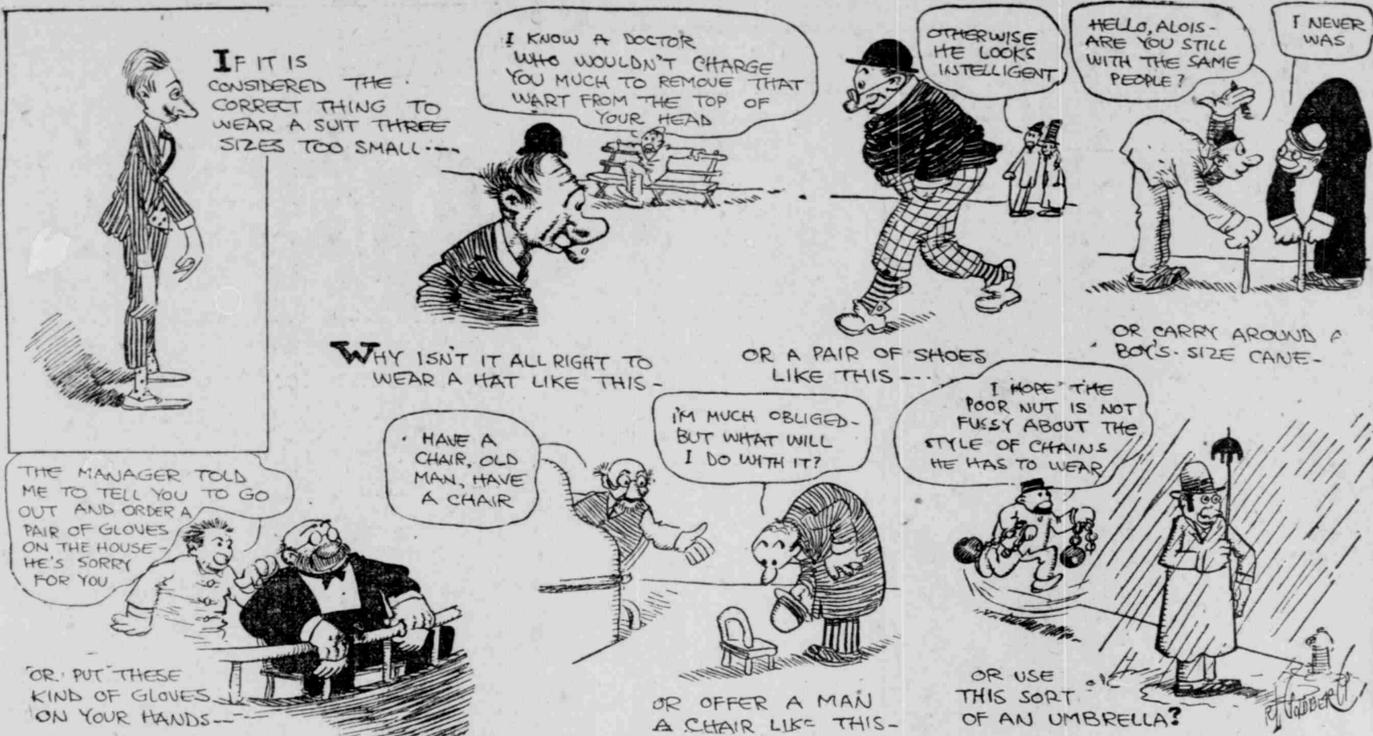

Bush made his leap into the limelight under the most favorable circumstances for his hard-hitting teammates tore into Tesreau with a fusillade of raps in the first two innings that netted five runs and relieved the youngster of the strain of pitching with the margin of safety narrow or entirely missing. This was particularly true of the first four Athletics on Connie Mack's batting list.

Murphy, Oldring, Collins and Baker, between them made nine of the 12 hits recorded for the Philadelphia club and so one-sided. In contrast to this vigorous assault on the offerings of Tesreau and Crandall were the five hits scattered through nine innings that marked the Giant efforts with the bat. Not a single National league representative secured two hits and Schaefer's double was the only one good for more than one base.

Bush in "Teens Yet."
The Athletics' latest twirling star, who will not be 20 years of age until Nov. 27, did not pitch phenomenal ball, but his delivery had entirely too much speed and break for the Giants to grow margin with during their first introduction to the Brainard, Minn., pitcher. Bush was just wild enough to keep the New York batters guessing and his quick changes of pace and delivery was an added handicap to the Giant efforts at the plate. He walked four batters and hit a fifth, but each time he faltered, his nerve and the brilliant fielding of his teammates soon lifted him back to safety.

The victory of Bush, who hails from the same town as "Chief" Ben-

INDIANS WATCH SCOREBOARD.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 9.—Among world's series fans around bulletin boards here during the last two days were half a hundred blanketed Indians from the reservations of Oregon and Washington, some of whom had traveled 150 miles to be where they could get returns quickly.

The Indian players on the two champion teams were the particular magnets of interest to the redskins. On Tuesday the Indians wanted the Athletics to win because Chief Bender was pitching and many literally whooped at news of his victory.

ing honors for the Athletics, although there were plays made by other members of both teams that would have been considered little short of remarkable in an ordinary league game. The very fact that but one error was recorded for each team testified to the calibre of the fielding in the third game of the series, including as it did four double-plays.

The defeat of the Giants was a severe setback to the New York club contingent, for Mathewson's wonderful work of Wednesday had encouraged the belief that the National league standard-bearers were to continue the pace set by the old master.

Many Fans Turned Away.
Thursday 38,888 fans paid to pass the turnstiles, exceeding by several hundred the attendance at the opening game. Every seat in the grand stand and bleachers was occupied and standees gathered at every point permitted by the fire and police regulations. The gate receipts totalled $75,763.50 and the club owners saw thousands of eager fans with real money in their hands turned away because there was not a foot of space inside the park that could be sold to them. Scores of spectators did business brazenly along Eighth av., selling tickets at many times their face value to prospective spectators who were willing to pay anything to gain admittance.

Sensational Defense Holds Rout.
So vigorously did they clout the sphere that the defeat would have become an utter rout, but for sensational stops and throws by Doyle, Fletcher and Herzog, at critical stages of the play. Captain Larry Doyle played desperately and his stops and plays in the second and seventh innings were of the brand that has made Honus Wagner's name famous wherever baseball is played.

Great Uhlan With Running Mate Lowers Own World's Record in Mile by Trotting
Exhibition in 1:54 1/2.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10.—Uhlan, the world's champion trotter, owned by C. K. G. Billings, Thursday lowered the world's record for a mile to 1:54 1/2. Uhlan set the previous record at 1:58 last year, the horse on both attempts against time being accompanied by a running mate.

Uhlan Thursday was driven by Charles Tanner and was favored with a perfect track and beautiful weather conditions. Trotting in magnificent form he made the quarters in :28 3/4, :57 1/4, 1:25 1/4 and 1:54 1/2. Horse and driver were given an ovation at the finish when the audience realized that a new world's record had been made.

Cheney captured the Transylvania stake for 2-year trotters, the feature of the Grand Circuit Thursday, winning after losing the first heat and coming within a half second of the record set for the event by Pensia Maid in 1909. Cheney's best time was made in the third heat when she trotted the mile in 2:04 3/4, equalling her own record.

In the 2:08 class pace, carried over from Wednesday, Michigan Queen won the fourth and final heat, the last heat in 2:03 3/4, lowering her own record a second and a quarter.

REORGANIZE H. N. S. FIVE
Regulars From Basketball Team for Season of 1913.

The Holy Name society regulars have reorganized for the basket ball season with the following line up: Goolley, star guard of last year; L. Hagerty, W. Burke, B. Vennett, F. Flex, and the pick of a number of others who are trying for positions.

The team will be in charge of W. Burke, who is making arrangements for a good schedule with several fast teams out of the city. The men composing the team are all experienced in the game, having played on some of the fastest teams of the city for the past three years and they promise to give some classy exhibitions this winter.

LIGHT WORK FOR VARSITY ELEVEN
Snappy Signal Drill and New Plays
Feature of Thursday's Program
—Freshmen to Be Saved
—Young Jacking up

Although the usual Thursday scrimmage at Notre Dame was called off yesterday afternoon, the football squad did not get a whole day's rest. In the morning Coach Harper sent his men through a snappy signal drill that lasted over two hours. A number of new plays that will be used against South Dakota was tried out and both first and second teams worked well.

The freshmen will not scrimmage against the varsity today for Father Farley does not wish to have any of his star yearlings disabled on the eve of the game with Calver. The first year team is working in great shape, holding the varsity to close scores in the daily scrimmages. Thorpe, the light but speedy quarterback is handling his men like a veteran. His running in a broken field and his returning of punts are flawless. Yeager at right half is also breaking into the line light. Though much smaller than Coffaul and Bachmann, his running mates in the backfield, he is a consistent ground gainer and his defensive playing often holds the speedy varsity backs to short gains.

TREATING ROADS.
E. Schenke of South Bend, representative of the Robeson Co. of Pennsylvania, N. J., is treating new roads at Sillwell, Ind., with glutin. He is also figuring on treating several roads around South Bend with the same substance.

HALLS TAKE UP FOOTBALL
Interhall football is again coming into its own at Notre Dame. Taking advantage of yesterday's recreation every hall but St. Joe turned out big squads for long scrimmages. Though Collins, one of Sorin's most promising candidates, is out for the season with a broken collarbone, the ardor of the "Bookies" has not been dampened. Sorin intends to put up a good fight for the championship this year. Walsh has been working out daily and the men are fast rounding into shape. Brownson and Corbin were sent through stiff scrimmages yesterday by their captains and both obtained satisfactory results. Morales, star tackle of the Brownson eleven, broke a finger in Wednesday's practice but it is expected this will not prevent him from resuming his old position.

NILES WILL HOLD MEET
NILES, Oct. 10.—A racing meet is planned to be held here Oct. 16 at the Parker track. The Niles Driving club will direct the races and a purse is being made up by manufacturers for the free-for-all entries. Charles Zwergel has been made president of the club and Carson Parker, secretary. Horses will enter from Keeler, South Bend, Laporte, Cassopolis and Niles.

IN BRILLIANT DEBUT.
LESLIE BUSH.
Carroll Bush, the classy young twirler of the Philadelphia Athletics, made a brilliant showing in his first world's series contest. Before the big games started he was picked as Mack's third best bet on the fringe line. Holding the Giants to five hits and two runs yesterday, he fulfilled expectations of his manager, Connie Mack, to the letter. The early lead of the Athletics, of course, gave him confidence, but his performance is none the less praiseworthy.

CUBS WIN LONG GAME FROM SOX BY SCORE 6 TO 5

Chicago Clubs Battle Through 13 Innings of Loose Play— "Big Jim" Vaughn is Cool Under Fire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—In a 13-inning battle the Chicago Nationals made the standing in the Chicago championship series one and one this afternoon, downing the American leaguers six to five.

The victory of the Cubs was due mainly to the courage and coolness of "Big Jim" Vaughn, who refused to give way before the vigorous attack of the South Siders. The game was a rugged one and poor plays were important factors in it as good ones. Though Clotte was hit hard, he might have lasted if some poor playing back of him had not been bunched in the fourth round—a disastrous inning for the White Sox. In that inning Chappelle, whose timely hit in the eighth pushed Chase over with the tying run, let loose a wild throw that struck the grand stand. Schalk muffed a throw from Lord that let in a run and Bodie, later delivering an opportune single, misjudged Archer's short fly so badly that two runs counted on the hit and the Cub catcher dressed up at second. Singles by Evers and Schulte and a safe bunt by Zimmerman had opened the fourth inning, which ended only after the West Siders had scored four runs.

Beniz Replaces Clotte.
Beniz succeeded Clotte in the fifth after Leach's safe drive, a pass to Evers and Schulte's hit scored the first run, and after that pitched a great game until the 13th. Then Zimmerman singled, Saler walked. Good flied out and Bridwell was passed. With the bases full, Archer shot a drive into left and Zimmerman connected the winning run, Saler being caught at the plate on the thrown in.
